ENGLAND DOWNCAST.

Sorrowful at the News of General Warren's Retreat.

MANY RUMORS OUT.

Some Intimate That the War Office Is Holding Back More Serious News Yet—Grave Information Comes from Berlin.

London, Jan. 27.—The military experts in the newspapers and the people in the streets take a gloomy view of the situation on the Tugela, it being the general opinion that Buller's flanking movement failed completely as did his frontal movement last month. The idea prevails that the war office has had news which it is keeping from the public, and the list of casualties which was given out Friday does not cover the losses of General Warren from "an annoying fire," spoken of by General Buller.

Since the flanking movement began Jan. 10, General Buller reported 60 killed, 508 wounded and 60 missing. It is remembered how the casualty list grew from day to day after the defeat of last month and it is feared the losses of the past few days are frightful. General Buller is criticised for the form of his message which reads as though he was trying to saddle the blame for the defeat upon General Warren. The new British reverses is likely to have a disheartening effect upon the beleaguered garrison of Ladysmith, but for whom the campaign would have been conducted on a very different plan.

Letters written when the siege of Ladysmith began were very sanguine; a letter written about the middle of December said that the besieged had rations for six weeks, and according to all reports the food question must be pressing. The latest report from Ladysmith reported 12 deaths in one day from enteric fever and dysentery.

Lord Roberts at Cape Town is almost forgotten in the excitement over the Tugela. Roberts is no way responsible for the operations for the relief of Ladysmith, for they have been conducted under the advice of the war office in London. It is said some time ago Roberts favored leaving Ladysmith to her fate and marching on Bloemfontein, the capital of the Free State. It is expected that under Roberts' direction there will be fighting in the western district soon, for the British armies, have been reinforced and the plight of Kimberley being urgent.

The war office has no news of the catastrophe to General Buller's force as reported from Berlin, and discredits the story. Neither has the war office any explanation, at least for publication, for the abandonment of Spion kop, and there are no advices in this connection from independent sources. The disposition now is to regard the evacuation as not so serious as at first thought, and commentators are abusing the military authorities, both at the front and at home for publishing hasty accounts of incomplete, half understood operations, thus alternately thrilling and depressing the nation.

The war office announces that the casualties reported by General Buller Friday occurred in the battalions of General Lytton's brigade, which, so far as known at the war office, was not engaged in the capture or defense of Spion kop. It appears, therefore, that they are additional to the "considerable casualties," which General Buller reported having occurred at Spion kop.

The defense committee of the cabinet met at the war office with Lord Salisbury presiding. There it was reiterated that rumors of the gravest kind of news was being concealed by the war office. It is even said that General Buller's forces were in full retreat.

Afternoon papers describe General Buller's dispatch as unpleasant reading for the British people, intensely mortifying to national pride and damaging to the country's prestige, and scathingly denounce the gazetting at the present time of reports, of which the St. James Gazette says:

"The display of academic frivolity is not uncommonly found in a combination of considerable practical incapacity lapsing into sneering, when they ought to rebuke and filled with the slang and humor of Kipling's subalterns."

The St. James Gazette sums up the opinion as follows: "These dispatches show the folly which prevailed throughout the period of the campaign covered, and which exacted the usual title of lives and men." There are signs of important movements developing at Cape Colony, General French has succeeded in getting in touch with General Gatacre, possibly presaging a combination of two columns and the commencement of the concentration of forces, which believed to be be the groundwork of Lord Robert's plan of campaign.

The Leader says: "General Buller is very sorry to say the capture of Spion kop had been abandoned. So, we dare say, is General Warren, for it knocks the bottom out of his tactics. His true tactics were to move by Acton Homes with a week's supply of ammunition and food."

The Morning Post says: "The Boers appear to have no lack of ammunition, for it turns out that the affair of Tuesday at Chieveley was not a British, but a Boer reconnaissance and the Boer efforts against Ladysmith were increased."

The affair of Tuesday at Chieveley was the discovery of identified troops moving around on the east side of Ladysmith reported from Chieveley—troops were imagined to be British irregulars detached from General Buller's column to reconnoiter.

It is understood the house of commons will be asked to appropriate $75,000,000 to cover the war expenses up to March 31. This is in addition to $50,000,000 already appropriated. Politicians talk of multiplying these figures by two or four to cover the total expenses of the war.

BOERS STILL MONARCHS.

Seven Days' Fighting Finds Them Holding Their Same Positions.

London, Jan. 27.—Seven days' fighting have left the main Boer positions intact and General Buller's army 706 men weaker, according to the official casualty lists, which seemingly do not include the Spion kop losses, as those last forwarded do not mention General Woodgate's wounding.

England is possessed by a depressing sense of failure, although not a word in criticism of her generals and soldiers is uttered. Not much effort is made to place a happy construction on General Buller's bare 18 words telling of the retirement from Spion kop, and there is an uneasy impression abroad that worse news is yet to come.

At one of the military clubs Friday night the statement passed from one member to another that the war office had received an unpleasant supplementary dispatch from General Buller which was being held up for 12 hours.

Although England's nerves are severely tried, her nerve is absolutely unshaken, and probably nothing than can happen in South Africa will change in the slightest degree her intentions. She will continue to receive bad news, if it comes, with dignity and will maintain her determination to win at last.

WARREN'S LOSS GREAT.

Rumor Says 800 of His Men Were Killed and 1500 Wounded.

Berlin, Jan. 27.—Some newspapers here claim to have a telegram from Pretoria saying that General Warren was enticed into Spion kop, where the Boers fell upon him, that 15 of his cannons were captured and Buller's hasty retreat over the Tugela river alone can save him.

It is alleged, the Pretoria telegram adds, the British losses were 800 killed and 1500 wounded.

The dispatch comes through Brussels. The German foreign office has the confirmation of the report that General Warren's division has been crushed.

Report from the Boers.

Boer Camp, Modder Spruit, Upper Tugela, Tuesday, Jan. 23.—The British are now endeavoring to force with 40,000 troops the Spion kop route to Ladysmith. The firing on General Botha's position yesterday was terrific. The grass was fired, rocks dislodged and trenches pierced, but the battle was practically one-sided, the federals only firing 80 shots. A ball after being spent fell in General Botha's pocket. The only Boer casualties were some horses wounded. The firing ceased at dark, but was resumed this morning in the vicinity of Ladysmith and here, but up to noon it lacked vigor.

Boer Losses.

London, Jan. 27.—Special dispatches from Durban say the Boer losses on the Tugela river fight on Sunday was very great. General Warren's men captured 160 prisoners and 130 Boers were found dead on the trenches.

Report Mafeking Relieved.

Lorenzo Marques, Jan. 27.—It is reported here on good Transvaal authority that Mafeking was relieved Tuesday.

Dr. Leyds Received.

Berlin, Jan. 27.—The North German Lloyd Gazette says Dr. Leyds, the diplomatic agent of the Transvaal, who arrived here for the celebration of the emperor's birthday, was received by Count Von Buelow, the minister of foreign affairs.

Boonesboro Town Site Sold.

Richmond, Ky., Jan. 27.—A land sale of more than ordinary historic significance was consummated here when 100 acres of the old Nathaniel Hart estate, on which was situated the pioneer town of Boonesboro, founded by Daniel Boone, and the first settlement in Kentucky, was transferred to George Bentley by Thomas Stevens for $4737. The purchase also includes the historic Boone's ferry across the Kentucky river, which

The Democrats Won.

Frankfort, Jan. 27.—In the case of Van Meter, Democrat, against Berry, Republican, for the latter's seat in the lower house of the legislature, decided in favor of Van Meter by a vote of 51 to 45. This is the vote which the Republicans and Democrats admit is an accurate forecast of the vote in the Goebel-Taylor contest.

Harrell on Trial.

Louisville, Jan. 27.—The trial of State Senator Harrell, charged by Colonel J. H. Whallen with securing money under false pretenses, begun here. The case grew out of Harrell's charge, made at Frankfort, that Whallen had paid him $4500 to vote against Goebel in the contest now before the legislature.

Bubonic plague, the great scourge of the middle ages, and the black death of 300 years ago is on the increase in Honolulu, and ships run regularly between that place and San Francisco. It is reported that a vessel has already arrived at the latter place with the disease on board. Next thing will be a contest between local health officers and importers, the former wishing to keep out the plague at any cost, and the latter wanting their goods landed at any cost in sickness and death.

"BROWN'S IN TOWN."

One of the best titles ever given to a farce comedy is "Brown's in Town" which will be the attraction at the Grand opera house Wednesday, January 31. There is something amusing in the very suggestion as to why this humorous gentleman is in the city. It is said that this particular Brown has enough embarrassing experience to thoroughly shake up any audience. The amusing situations of the farce are said to never pall on one, and those who have seen it pronounce it the most original of them all. The conventional mother-in-law, the stereotyped old maid, the visiting aunt with mother-in-law instincts, and the time-worn German and Irish servants have been dispensed with. The story is told by young players, and is an entirely new and original one. Several musical numbers are introduced and are said to fit in admirably. The farce is in three acts and the plot hinges on the story of a young man who is secretly married against the wishes of a stern father.

Regarding the Lombardi Italian Grand Opera company, which appears here Feb. 6, an advance notice says: "The Lombardi Italian Grand Opera company, composed of some of the greatest operatic singers the world has ever known, will appear here at the Grand Tuesday night, February 6. The company is an unusually large one, there being almost seventy actual working artists, of whom fourteen are stars of international reputation. Besides these, a large and efficient orchestra is carried. The opera to be sung here is Donizetti's highly dramatic masterpiece, 'Lucia di Lammermoor,' with the celebrated lyric soprano prima donna, Signorina Amilia Sostegni in the title role."

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that I this day have been appointed temporary administrator of the estate of A. B. Abdication of the Chinese Emperor Creating Animosity.

JAPAN WORKED UP.

It Is Intimated That Russia Has a Hand in the Deal—Chinese Are Murmuring and the Progressives Are Sore.

London, Jan. 28.—A special dispatch from Shanghai says the news of the abdication of the Chinese emperor has caused a tremendous sensation in Japan, where a strong desire is expressed to adopt stringent measures, as it is believed Russia is the leading hand in the coup d'etat.

The dowager empress has dismissed Jung Lu, generalissimo of the Chinese forces, on account of his supposed disapproval of the coup d'etat.

Other high officials have been superseded. Extraordinary precautions have been taken at the viceregal capitals to prevent risings. The troops have been served with ball cartridges.

The interior of China is greatly excited and progressive Chinese are begging the American, British and Japanese ministers to interfere and restore the emperor to power. An official communication received here from Peking says: "Pu Chun, who has been appointed heir apparent to the throne, has been given the status of a son of the last emperor. The statement that a new emperor has ascended the throne is premature, although it is probable the present action is preparatory thereto."

AMERICANS EXECUTED.

It Is Reported Six Shot by Military Officers in Mexico.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 27.—From Guaymas, Mex., comes the news by mail that a report is current there that six Americans, David Cusick, John Eldridge, George Lunt, Charles Burns, Lon Webster and Henry Williams, were shot during last week near the foot of the Bacate mountains, east of Guaymas, by order of General Torres, who is in command of the Mexican troops now operating against the Yaqui Indians in the Bacate range. It is further reported that the matter was brought to the attention of the American consul at Guaymas, but that the latter has declined to interfere. It is said the Mexican troops found the Americans in friendly intercourse with the Yaquis, whom the troops have surrounded in the range. Some of the names are known here and are prospects.

The Americans at Guaymas warn all Americans to keep away from the Yaqui country.

TEXAS LEGISLATURE.

The House Holds a Short Session and Adjourns.

Austin, Jan. 27.—The senate held no session yesterday and the house transacted but little business.

In the presence of the house the speaker signed house bill No. 3, making an appropriation of $10,000 for contingent expenses.

Mr. Decker introduced house bill No. 6, providing for a franchise tax on corporations. Referred to committee on internal improvements.

Mr. Howard introduced house bill No. 7, providing for patents on homesteads surveyed prior to May 23, 1898. Referred to committee on agriculture.

The house then adjourned to Monday.

The senate committee on revenue and taxation held an open session and secured the opinion of several persons upon important points. Various phrases of the tax bill were discussed, but no actual conclusion reached.

Smallpox News.

Austin, Jan. 27.—The following advice have been received here by the health department of smallpox in the state:

Thirteen cases have developed at Prairie Dell in Bell county.

Only one case has developed at Marshall and that is mild and will soon be discharged.

Seventeen cases have been discharged at Honey Grove the last few days and all the other cases there are convalescing. The pest there is under control. Mrs. Bradley died at Texarkana of the disease.

Bourke Cockran's Petition.

New York, Jan. 27.—W. Bourke Cockran has announced his advocacy, with one condition, of the renomination of W. J. Bryan for the presidency. Mr. Cockran proposes a truce with the Nebraska on the silver question until 1904, and if Mr. Bryan will agree to the armistice, anti-imperialism will be the Democracy's war cry in the 1900 campaign. If Mr. Bryan will consent to postpone the silver fight until 1904, Mr. Cockran agrees to endorse the Chicago platform in its entirety.

Fire at Arapahoe.

Arapahoe, O. T., Jan. 27.—Almost the entire north side of the business portion of Main street was destroyed by fire Friday.

PHILIPPINE LEGISLATION.

Some Senators Believe a Step Must Be Made Soon.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The impression is growing among administration leaders that there should be some definite action by congress without much further delay upon the problem of the Philippine policy. It is generally felt that further delay in the declaration of some sort of government policy for the islands may not only work harm in the Philippines, but may be utilized to advantage by the Democrats in the presidential campaign.

While senators are very guarded in their utterances several Republicans believe the administration policy will be strengthened by a frank and prompt declaration, or by congressional action, which will mean the same thing. They think such a step would work to their advantage through the favorable impression it would make upon business men and at the same time strengthen the administration by bringing an early end to all except the merest Manila warfare in the islands.

The senate is expected to take the first practical steps on this line, but as yet nothing has been done there. Senator Lodge, chairman of the Philippine commission, has up to this time been of the opinion that there should be nothing in the nature of a declaration of policy in advance of the ending of the insurrection by the capture of Aguinaldo and the surrender by the Filipinos of their arms. It is understood several prominent senators on the committee are urging action for the two reasons indicated—that a declaration by congress would tend to help conditions in the Philippines and that such action would strengthen the administration.

The only resolution now before the senate legislative in its character is that of Senator Spooner of Wisconsin. This is modeled on the similar resolution of congress under which the president obtained full authority, executive, legislative and judicial, in the territory covered by the Louisiana purchase until such time as congress should itself take charge.

"I think it would be better," said Mr. Spooner, "to take that action than to have the conduct of affairs remain in the hands of the president simply through his power as commander-in-chief of the army a year after peace has been secured. The most practical declaration we can give these people would be to show them that congress recognizes that we have acquired possession of the country and that we are legislating for it."

"Of course, we shall put down the insurrection. That is what we have increased the army for and by showing them that congress treats them as insurrectionists and regards their country as part of the country controlled by us, we will, I think, do much more toward bringing a settlement of the conditions than we would by any formal declaration of policy."

Senator Morgan of Alabama agrees with Senator Spooner's view of what should be done by congress.

ROBBED A SAFE.

Three Robbers Bound and Gagged Four Men and Secured $1700.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Three masked robbers entered the factory of Dr. Peter Fahrney Sons & Co. Friday night, bound and gagged four employees of the concern, blew open the safe and escaped with $1700 in currency and a considerable amount of notes and other valuable papers. The explosion shattered the safe and made a complete wreck of the office. The shock was felt for a block from the scene of the robbery and the whole neighborhood was aroused by the detonations.

Wisconsin Bank Robbed.

Madison, Jan. 27.—The Bank of Deerfield, 16 miles east of Madison, was robbed of about $17,000 Friday night. The vault was blown open with dynamite. The robbers escaped.

Boggs a Candidate.

Mount Vernon, Ills., Jan. 27.—Hon. Carroll C. Boggs of Fairfield, judge of the supreme court for the southern Illinois division, has addressed a letter to Judge E. D. "FAIRY TALES."

SOME FOLK'S pretences to always undersell the world are rather tiresome. No one has monopoly of Brains and money. It will be a very sorry day for this little town when competition ceases. The fanciful stories of some remind us much of our childhood days when we sat on Mothers knee listening to Mother Goose stories. But maturer years require more reason. You want something more substantial than Fairy tales. That by our constant attempt is to make the prices on our goods a point to meet the approval of the sensible purchasing public.

In Memoriam.

In fond remembrance of my childhood friend, Emma B. Stuart, nee Baker, do I quote these lines:

Thou art gone, our precious darling;
Nevermore canst thou return;
Thou shalt sleep, a peaceful slumber,
Till the resurrection morn.

Then beyond this vale of sorrow,
We'll awake from every care:
In a city bright, eternal,
And its joys we'll ever share.

Thou art gone, our precious darling;
Nevermore we'll see thy face,
Till we meet thee o'er the river,
In that happy dwelling place.

There we'll meet you, precious darling,
There we'll clasp glad hands once more;
Then we've met to part, no, never,
On that happy, peaceful shore.

There we'll spend the countless ages,
Ever by our Savior's side,
There we'll never know a sorrow,
There our tears will all be dried.

We shall meet to part, no, never,
Bye and bye, bye and bye;
We shall meet to part, no, never,
In that home beyond the sky.

—FROM ONE WHO LOVED HER

"AN ORIGINAL IDEA."

Was a Grand Success at Liberty Hall Last Evening.

One of the best literary entertainments ever given in this city was enjoyed last evening by those who attended "An Original Idea" which was given at the Library Hall by Mr. and Mrs. Francis Labadie. The delightful affair was arranged for by the Cœur de Leon Lodge No. 80, K. of P. under whose auspices it was given.

"The Wooing Scene" in Shakespeare's King Richard III was the first reading given by the duologue entertainers and its reproduction was excellent. By request Mr. and Mrs. Labadie enacted the scene where Damon, in the selection of "Damon and Pythias," breaks the news to his wife of his being condemned to death, and their farewell scene. A very touching act was this as all who are familiar with this piece well know.

The trial scene in the "Merchant of Venice" was given in a very natural manner. The impersonators were dressed in costume. Mrs. Labadie taking the part of Portia and being disguised as a doctor of the law, and Mr. Labadie enacting the part of the revengful Shylock.

"A happy Pair" was the last selection and was considered by many the best. The entertainers enacted the first quarrel to perfection, it seeming as though it were actually happening. The affair was a complete success.—The Times. Davenport.

The above excellent attraction will be at the Opera House, Thursday night February 8th. The performance will be given as a benefit for the Knights of Pythias to help them purchase new paraphernalia for their lodge room. Price of admission down stairs 50c, children 25c, gallery 25c, no reserved seats.

GIVEN FOURTEEN YEARS.

Mrs. Rich Convicted of the Murder of Her Husband at Juarez.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 27.—Mrs. John D. Rich, alias Mattie D. Rich, the Chicago woman surrendered to Mexico to be tried for the murder of her husband in Juarez last May, has been adjudged guilty by the Mexican court and sentenced to serve 14 years in prison.

The finding of the court was read to the woman in her cell she being unable to attend court on account of a broken leg.

The woman collapsed completely when she heard the sentence and screamed like a maniac.

It required the combined strength of two guards to prevent her from assaulting the officials.

She was finally quieted, however, and then she asked the pardon of those present for her conduct.

Defendant's lawyers will appeal to the higher court at Chihuahua, and in the event the finding of the lower court is affirmed, Governor Ahumada will be asked for a pardon.

A search of Mrs. Rich's cell revealed the fact that a quantity of nitric acid and other poisons had been concealed there.

She will be imprisoned at Chihuahua.

Denver, Jan. 27.—News has just been received here of the capture of Reynolds and Wagner, the escaped convicts, and the subsequent escape of Wagner. Reynolds is the man charged with killing Night Captain Rooney of the Colorado penitentiary at Canyon City, and Wagner is said to have held Rooney while Reynolds stabbed him. Fought for His Liberty.

Laredo, Tex., Jan. 27.—A Mexican named Antonio Laredo, charged with murder in Caldwell county, Tex., was arrested here Friday after a running fight for 10 blocks through the most thickly populated portion of the city. About 40 shots were fired, and not until his ammunition was exhausted and a Winchester bullet through his leg had disabled him, was the fugitive captured. The pursuit created much excitement in the city for a time, but no casualty is reported beyond the wounding of Laredo. The man was located here through the filing of a suit for divorce by Miguel Hernandez against his wife, with Laredo named as co-respondent.

SEVERAL TOWNS TAKEN.

American Opening the Hemp Ports in the Philippines Islands.

Manila, Jan. 27.—A dispatch from Sorsogon says Brigadier General Kobbe's expedition has occupied Sorsogon, Donosol, Bulan, Legaspi and Virac on Catanduanes island. The only resistance was at Legaspi, where five Americans were wounded and 45 dead and 15 wounded Filipinos were found.

It is believed there are 125,000 bales of hemp in these provinces and 75,000 bales in the ports of Sorsogon and Legaspi. The United States gunboat Nashville's shrapnel burned 8000 bales in Legaspi.

The expedition arrived off Sorsogon Jan. 20, and the town displayed white flags. General Kobbe and Colonel Howe, with a battalion of the Forty-seventh infantry, landed here and raised the United States flag. The insurgent force, numbering 800 men, evacuated the place. The natives were passive.

During the morning of Jan. 23 the Nashville and Venus with four companies of Forty-seventh infantry regiment under Major Shipton, approached Legaspi. Filipino flags were flying and the trenches were crowded. A detachment of 150 picked men led by Major Shipton landed on the beach about a mile north of the town, the Nashville bombarded the trenches and the enemy retreated to Albay, whence they were easily dispersed to the hills.

About 200 insurgents, armed with rifles, forced 600 unwilling villagers, armed with bows and arrows, to serve in the trenches in the close range fighting before the enemy fled. The Filipino dead were mostly villagers who were attempting to flee.

The expedition will proceed to Samar and Leyte, where the Forty-third and a battalion of the Third artillery will be distributed.

Lieutenant Colonel Webb C. Hayes has defeated an entrenched force of the enemy at Sariaga. One American was killed and five wounded. A record of 11 American prisoners was found.

Captain Casteel, while scouting near Baras with his company, encountered 400 insurgents. He was reinforced by Captain Gracie and the enemy driven to Tanay. One American was killed and one wounded.

Smallpox in the Territory.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Postoffice officials are watching the spread of smallpox in Oklahoma with serious interest. It has been found necessary to close the office at Remus, because the postmaster, his wife and two of his children are afflicted. Avoca is threatened with the plague, and the railway mail clerks are instructed to suspend the mail service thither at their own discretion. The last town to fall under suspicion is Weatherford, in Kay county. Should smallpox continue to spread, the mail service to all communities seriously affected is to cease until the period of quarantine has passed.

His Wounds Fatal.

Carlyle, Ills., Jan. 27.—Jacob Anheuser, aged 50, who was discovered near the tracks of the Baltimore and Ohio Southeastern railway, east of Trenton, with two scalp wounds, is dead. Anheuser is not believed to be his real name. With three other men he had been living in an old house in the woods near Aviston, making baskets. His associates allege he has an uncle residing in Belleville. It is supposed he was knocked from the railroad track by a passing train.

His Wife Didn't Die.

Indianapolis, Jan. 27.—Samuel Van Camp, a carpenter, hurried into the office of Probate Commissioner Walker on Thursday and asked that his wife's estate be so adjusted so that he could turn it into cash. He said his wife had just died and he wanted to get the money to bury her. Mr. Walker explained the necessary steps and Van Camp departed. He returned in an hour and said the case would be dropped as his wife was still alive. She had fainted.

American Claim on San Domingo.

San Domingo, Jan. 27.—The American minister is pressing a demand for the balance of the money due, $47,000, to American citizens on account of the absorption of a bridge concession by the government of San Domingo. It is said the government will pay the amount of the claim in a few days.
